LATEST UPDATES

Apply for funding under the Climate Change and Adaptation to Extreme Weather Infrastructure component of the Rail Safety Improvement Program (RSIP)

Minister of Transport, the Honourable Omar Alghabra, announced the launch of the first call for proposals for the Climate Change and Adaptation to Extreme Weather Infrastructure initiative under Transport Canada's Rail Safety Improvement Program.

The Climate Change and Adaptation to Extreme Weather Infrastructure initiative will provide up to $10.5 million in funding this year. This initiative specifically targets rail infrastructure projects meant to increase resilience to extreme weather events and advance measures to address climate change measures. It will also support rehabilitation projects that repair damage from significant weather events.

Transport Canada will be accepting applications for the Climate Change and Adaptation to Extreme Weather Infrastructure initiative through an open, competitive call for proposals from now until January 6, 2023

Engineers Geoscientists Manitoba's Manitoba Climate Resilience Training (MCRT) - SURVEY

Engineers Geoscientists Manitoba's Manitoba Climate Resilience Training (MCRT) Project Team NEEDS YOU to fill out a 5-minute survey on Your Most Wanted Climate Change adaptation, mitigation, and resiliency training.

In February and March of 2023, Engineers Geoscientists Manitoba's MCRT Team will be delivering updated and new climate change courses to our practitioners and to our allied professions and decision-makers in professional planning, architecture, agriculture, construction, Indigenous organizations, and municipalities-- all who build and manage infrastructure in Manitoba.

These courses will help you enhance your professional practices to respond to climate changes, with an emphasis on mitigation, including greenhouse gas reduction. Tell us which subjects would be most useful to you right now, so that we can get these courses developed and delivered in Spring 2023 and beyond. Tell us how you would like to have training delivered to you – online, in person, or hybrid. Click on this link <https://ca1se.voxco.com/S2/291/AMM/> and fill out the survey as soon as possible. EngGeoMB will report back to your organization on what we heard.
