NEWS RELEASE

KATHY VALENTINO ELECTED AMM PRESIDENT, BRAD SALUK AND SCOTT PHILLIPS AS VICE-PRESIDENTS

November 27, 2024 – The Association of Manitoba Municipalities (AMM) concluded its 26th Annual Fall Convention today, where 700+ delegates from across Manitoba elected Kathy Valentino, Councillor from the City of Thompson, as President.

“I am truly humbled and honoured to lead our strong and unified association,” stated President Valentino. “I am incredibly excited to get to work, with a focus on connecting with all AMM members to strengthen local communities and grow our province.”

Reeve Brad Saluk from the RM of Brokenhead and Councillor Scott Phillips from the RM of Sifton were also elected as Vice-Presidents, completing the new AMM Executive team.

"Brad and Scott are extremely passionate municipal leaders," added President Valentino. "Our Executive team is committed to serving with professionalism, determination, and a shared goal of amplifying municipal voices and advancing the interests of all municipalities."
